- Please be advised that all students attending the ICDC MUST be assigned to a Teacher Advisor presently employed with the Board of Education in which the student is attending. If you are unable to attend the ICDC, it is your responsibility to find an Advisor who is willing to supervise your student within your own school board. Advisors are responsible for all their students and those that they personally agree to supervise from departure time from Toronto on Thursday, April 19, 2018, the entire stay in Atlanta, until arrival back in Toronto on Thursday, April 26, 2018. NO STUDENT WILL BE ALLOWED TO ATTEND THE ICDC UNLESS ACCOMPANIED BY AN ADVISOR.

Advisors who agree to supervise your student in Atlanta can ask to be partially reimbursed for ICDC Registration coverage. A precedent has been set at $200 per student by all school boards in Ontario. This cheque should be made payable to the school and not to DECA Ontario. Advisor to Student ratio should not exceed 1:8 or the School board's ratio; whichever is stricter.

3. Students will be assigned to room with students of the same gender, where possible, with students from their own school. Incomplete blocks of students cannot be guaranteed to stay together.
4. International DECA's nightly curfew is 12:30 am. DECA Ontario's curfew is different. Please see agenda for specific times. The Advisors of International DECA and DECA Ontario will uphold the curfew. A non-compliance of DECA rules can mean the immediate removal of the student from the competition, at their own expense
5. REFUNDS / CANCELLATIONS. DECA Inc. will not refund registration fees to DECA Ontario, and thus we cannot refund them to you. Hotel rooms have been booked and other students or advisors sharing the room cannot be expected to pay the extra costs if you do not attend the ICDC.

Date	Action
Cancellations between February 11 – March 1	$100 administration fee for cancelling is made payable to DECA Ontario; DECA Ontario will then look at finding a replacement for the student/teams that withdrew and will go down the top 10 Provincials Qualifiers list until a suitable replacement is found
Cancellations between March 1 – April 19 (Students and teachers will have been booked on specific flights and a group insurance policy already purchased)	Cancellations will now have to go through insurance and only if the reasons are deemed insurable. Please see policy for full details: Manulife Insurance Coverage

6. ALL competitors for their Oral events MUST wear official DECA blazers. If a school does not have blazers, they can purchase them in Atlanta ~ $80+ USD or borrow them from another chapter. If you have 20 students going, you need at least 5 jackets; students can share. LDAs can be in casual business attire for all events. They are NOT required to wear the DECA blazer.
7. Manulife Comprehensive, deluxe health and trip cancellation insurance is included for all participants.

DECA ON 2018 Group Master Policy - TSV0000489G 1 (800) 387-2787

In order to validate the insurance, delegates MUST a) be a Canadian citizen and b) have a valid Ontario health card. Bring your health card to Georgia. If you don't, you can invalidate the extra insurance coverage. Rates are lower since Manulife Insurance is insuring Ontario residents. If you are not a Canadian citizen or over 59, a different insurance rate will apply. When you register your students you must use their official name as seen on their passport or on their birth certificate. The insurance includes a zero deductible policy; Manulife pays the hospital directly unless there are prescriptions (keep receipts to submit). Ground transfers and emergency repatriation is also included.

ICDC DRESS CODE

Professional appearance is an important aspect of the overall preparation of DECA members for the business world. To that end, DECA supports a dress code for its career-based functions that exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism while being non-discriminatory between males and females. DECA's board of directors has developed the following official dress standards for the International Career Development Conference. Students, advisors and chaperones must follow the dress code.

Competitors must wear an official DECA blazer during interaction with the judges. While official DECA blazers are not required during briefing and testing, professional business dress is required. Professional dress should also be worn to all conference sessions including workshops and special meal functions such as luncheons. For a more polished, professional appearance, it is recommended that attendees wear appropriate hosiery/socks.

AN OFFICIAL DECA BLAZER IS REQUIRED TO RECEIVE RECOGNITION/AN AWARD ON STAGE.

Consequences for Infractions of Code of Conduct

It has become more apparent that we have to be seriously concerned about the safety, welfare and behaviour of our students when they are on overnight school trips, especially out-of-country. We expect that our students will be on their very best behaviour and represent Ontario in a very positive manner when they are on such field trips. A curfew is set for your child's safety, and must be followed over the duration of the trip. It is also expected that there will be no drug or alcohol use on such school trips. Students found consuming alcohol and/or drugs at the International Conference will be banned from ever participating at any future DECA event. It must be made clear that if drugs or alcohol are consumed or purchased on this trip that there will be appropriate consequences upon the student's return (i.e. suspensions). DECA Ontario will remove the student(s) from the conference and will send them immediately home at their own expense. If information regarding an alcohol and/or drug infraction is discovered after the end of the conference, the consequences will still apply.

Lesser offences will still result in the banning of the student(s) participation in DECA but any school consequences will be at the discretion of the principal.

A formal letter outlining the infractions will be mailed to the Principal and the Chapter Advisor within one week after the conclusion of the conference.
